HOUSIE VOLUNTEERS

We need some volunteers to help us with the housie laptop on a Thursday afternoon from 1pm - 3pm. You don't need any experience as we will give you full training. We also wouldn't need you every Thursday, just every now and again. If you are interested please see Helen in the office or email her at admin@pncossieclub.co.nz

LEMONS

The bar needs lemons again, if you have any lemons to spare please drop them off at the bar this is much appreciate.

MEET AND GREET

This is a great way to meet people coming into your club if you have 2 hours to spare on a Friday or Saturday from 5.30pm until 7.30pm then please let Helen know and she can put you on the roster, Thank you to the regular meet and greeters your help is very much appreciated.

BIRTHDAY VOUCHERS

Just a friendly reminder about birthday vouchers, these are available for you to pick up (during office hours) in the month of your birthday e.g. If your birthday is in January then you can pick up your voucher in January, even if your birthday is not until the end of January you can still collect it at the beginning of the month, you then have the whole month of January to spend it.

When you come to collect your voucher you must have your membership card with you for our staff to check we have your correct birthday in our system. Just to clear up a couple of issues we have found with the birthday vouchers, we do not email these out to you, we do not have them enveloped waiting for you, we do not mail them out to you we also do not pay your subs for you if your birthday falls in the same month that your subs are due. They can only be used in the Restaurant and you cannot collect these vouchers for anyone else.

FRIDAY FUNNY

FOR ALL WOMEN AT HOME

One afternoon a man came home from work to find total mayhem in his house. His three children were outside, still in their pajamas, playing in the mud, with empty food boxes and wrappers strewn all around the front yard. The door of his wife's car was open, as was the front door to the house. Proceeding into the entry, he found an even bigger mess. A lamp had been knocked over, and the throw rug was wadded against one wall. In the front room the TV was loudly blaring a cartoon channel, and the family room was strewn with toys and various items of clothing.

In the kitchen, dishes filled the sink, breakfast food was spilled on the counter, dog food was spilled on the floor, a broken glass lay under the table, and a small pile of sand was spread by the back door. He quickly headed up the stairs, stepping over toys and more piles of clothes, looking for his wife. He was worried she may be ill, or that something serious had happened.

He found her lounging in the bedroom, still curled in the bed in her pajamas, reading a novel. She looked up at him, smiled, and asked how his day went.

He looked at her bewildered and asked, "What happened here today?" She again smiled and answered, "You know everyday when you come home from work and you ask me what in the world did I do today?" "Yes was his incredulous reply. She answered, "Well, today I didn't do it."
