FRIDAY FUNNY

There was a lawyer who had worked all his life, had saved all his money. He was a real miser when it came to his money.

Just before he died, he said to his wife, "When I die, I want you to take all my money and put it in the casket with me. I want to take my money to the afterlife with me."

And so he got his wife to promise him, with all of her heart. He died soon.

He was stretched out in the casket, his wife was sitting there, dressed in black, and her friend was sitting next to her. When they finished the ceremony, and just before the undertakers got ready to close the casket, the obedient wife said, "Wait just a moment!"

She had a small metal box with her; she came over with the box and put it in the casket. Then the undertakers locked the casket down and they rolled it away.

Then her friend said: "Girl, I know you were not foolish enough to put all that money in there with your husband."

The loyal wife replied: "Listen, I'm a wife; I cannot go back on my word. I promised "You mean to tell me you put that money in the casket with him!?!?!?"

"I sure did," said the loyal wife. "I got all the money together, put it into my account, and wrote him a cheque. I put the cheque in the casket.

Now it is up to him to cash the cheque. If he can cash it, then he can spend it!"
