ADJUNCT NEWS

18TH OCTOBER 2018

DARTS ADJUNCT

On Sat 6 Oct PNCC played a social game of darts against UHCC in UH. 11 members gathered and departed for the Petone Workingmen's Club for lunch and a quiet drink. We headed up the motorway to our accommodation and after checking in departed for the Cossie Club to play. The games were played in great spirits and a lot of fun was had. The main aim was for our members to get away and engage with another club playing darts in a social environment. It is safe to say our intent was achieved and everyone had a lot of fun, despite losing by 1 game. Lance won a pound of Whitebait in a raffle and that was the cornerstone of a combined breakfast cooked for all on Sunday morning. An invitation was given to the UHCC Social Darts Adjunct to visit us in the New year, which has been accepted.
