You're membership card must be carried at all times while in the club, if you don't have you're card on you, you will need to sign in.

To all member's and visitor's please don't be offended when Staff or our Meet & Greet helper's ask for you're membership card or visitor's slip they are just doing what the laws dictates.

Hope to see some new faces.

The Club was swinging on Saturday 11th July with the "The Clefs" providing the music. With no bookings people who wanted a "good" table had to come early, to the benefit of the Kitchen and to a lesser extent, the Bar. It was notable that the regular Saturday Night diners stayed longer than normal listening to the music. The dance floor was packed all night and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves. Thank You to the Darts Group and the regulars in their co-operation in allowing us to clear the leaner's off the dance floor in good time, and to those who assisted afterwards in moving the leaner's back.

FRIDAY FUNNY

Your father's got a really good job now. He's got 500 men under him. He's cutting the grass at the cemetery.
