We are still looking for drivers, even if you would only like to drive occasionally as a relief driver to help give the full time drivers a break now and then. The more we have the less time we would need you. If we had 10 names as reserve drivers you may only be called on once a year.

FRIDAY FUNNY

Barry the Builder

Barry, the Kiwi builder, was going through a house he had just built, with the woman who owned it. She was telling him what colours to paint each room. They went into the first room and she said, "This room to be a light blue."

The builder went to the front door and yelled out "Green side up!" As he went back she said the next room was to be red.

The builder again went to the front door and called out "Green side up!" Once back with her, she said "This one to be tan."

And again he went to the front door and yelled "Green side up!"

The lady, very curious, said "I keep telling you different colours but, you always yell "Green side up",

"What do you say that for?"

"Oh, don't you worry about that," said the builder, "I've got a couple of Aussies Craig & Phil laying turf out front."
