Results from the 23rd of June

Even floods and frosts couldn't stop the brave 17 that turned up on Tuesday night.

1st place: Craven Teua and Neil Turner

2nd place: Brian Harrod and Gary Potts

3rd place: Andy Lim and Doug Rodgers

Neil Turner sunk the blue with the first attempt of the night and added the jackpot to his first place prize. Doug Rodgers took out the high break of the night.

Results from the 30th June

18 players meant only three frames were possible for each player tonight but people still enjoyed the night. Great to see the tables so busy again with a lot of players starting to come back to the sport.

1st place with two wins from three was John Wylie and Doug Rodgers

2nd place with two wins: Craven and Kingston

3rd place getters who only just got home were Dave Eason and Gary Potts

No one sunk the blue so it will jackpot until next week and no one got any high breaks

Notices

Entries for Club Champs are up on the board with entry fee of $4 per competition. Entrants must be financial members of the Club to compete. We hope to start the first matches on August 1.

Sunday Dancing 21st June

In the week leading up to this I was looking up plans for the Ark and thinking about rounding up the animals two by two. This afternoon we were to be entertained by Saxachord who come from Paraparaumu. On Saturday morning I had a call from Barry McLennon telling me that they would not be able to make it on Sunday with roads being closed and/or washed out with flooding.

PANIC!

I rang Ian Farmer and he could not make it because he had to somehow make his way to Wellington to pick up his wife from Wellington hospital.

After several calls to various contacts we were still without a band and thought we would have to revert to computer music.

I tried to contact Desiree to find out if it was okay to use Craven Noble. Our home phone was on the blink and so nobody could contact us and after many calls to and from the Club we finally got the ok. Thank You Helen for your time and trouble, it was much appreciated.

Well, Craven Noble proved to be an immense success, with record numbers attending, some more new faces and BIG crowds on the dance floor. Everyone enjoyed the change in music and requested that we bring him back. So be it.

Our next date is Sunday 19th July with Ian Farmer

Followed by. Sunday 16th August with Saxachord

Sunday 20th September with Craven Noble

Don't forget Saturday 11th July with "The Clefs". A 5 piece band with another 3 singers. No booking will be taken so you may need to come early to secure a table. No cover charge. Restaurant opens 5.30pm. This should be a great night with a very good band. See you there.

FRIDAY FUNNY

Your sister Mary had a baby this morning but I haven't found out if it's a boy or girl, so I don't know whether you are an auntie or uncle.
